Hiring Process Update:

Due to the retirement of Lt. Randy Ratliff, I will begin the process to hire a new officer. In December of 2017 a hiring list was created through a series of written and physical testing. This list will remain active until December of 2019. The current list contains 4 people from which we will pick the new hire from.

Lt. Ratliff's retirement will also require staffing and promotion changes in the near future. At this time no decisions have been made however discussions have begun within the command staff.
